Description:

OFEX is Europe's leading independent public market that specializes in small and medium companies. OFEX Investors are the true gamblers in the stock market; they invest in the inexpensive shares and are willing to risk losing everything in the hopes of making a profit. These people respond well to genuine investment opportunities, and all are current shareholders. Offers from stockbrokers, commodity brokers, foreign exchange, CFD's, private placements, mutual funds, IPO's, mortgages, credit cards offers, travel & vacation packages, and home entertainment equipment work well.
